Discover the Value of Precision Cash Management

When it comes to the business of managing your cash, precision is paramount to your bottom line!

Eliminate the errors and discrepancies which cost both time and money.

Small and mid-sized companies spend more on back-office activities like cash counting than large businesses.

On average, cash handling procedures cost retailers up to 500 hours in labour per month.

Retailers consider the security of their cash and labour management to be the largest drivers of a cash automation investment.

Cash is still a preferred payment method in North America.

Why do people prefer to pay with cash?

- ✓ Convenience
- ✓ Privacy
- ✓ Speed
- ✓ Budget control

51% of all transactions are paid for with cash in Canada and 30% in the U.S.

Cash is seen as a great budgeting tool and more secure than other payment types.
